

The 25 best small companies to work for

11. Radio Flyer

11 of 26

Location: Chicago

Industry: Manufacturing and production

A healthy, stress-free lifestyle for employees is a priority for the toy company. Bike to work, and the company will pay 50 cents a mile as reimbursement, which gives staff an incentive to stay fit. Staying active in the office is encouraged as well -- Radio Flyer holds daily "Wii hours" where employees get to blow off steam and have fun by playing video games onsite. At the end of the year, the CEO personally distributes holiday hams and other free company products to staff.
